

Student Case Study

Produced by: Marsha Johnson, Careers Co-ordinator Name of Student BS

Introduction & Family Background

BS lives with his other family member
 BS moved to Kingsmead after found in possession of drugs within the community.

IAG (Information Advice & Guidance) - assessment, intervention, planning, setting targets/aims

BS behavior on the whole, in the last four years has been positive
 BS behaviors were:
 Lateness to school
 Failure to follow school expectations
 Lack of effort or engagement
 Non compliance
 BS has made massive improvements and is focused on achieving
 BS has received careers information such as Apprenticeships/traineeships, LMI, preparing for the World of Work.
 STEM industries information- online (During the Pandemic)
 Mock interview and CV writing
 Careers Fair at the Pru
 Toyota 3 stage interviews
 IAG interviews- 3 throughout the year, with a qualified careers adviser, to make a realistic decision regarding his own future.
 BS would like to be an Engineer, working for Toyota
 BS also applied at Derby College for an Engineering course.

Partnership Working

BS was signed posted to Breakout to ensure he has the right support around drugs.
 BS was referred to YOS for further support
 BS has had a three stage interview at Toyota and had the opportunity to visit Toyota.
 BS also attended an interview at Derby College for a Level 2 Derby College course for Engineering.

Outcomes (for child, parents, staff, establishment)

BS was a high achiever and managed to obtain 5 GCSEs at grade 4 and above
 BS has enrolled on to Toyota to complete a two year apprenticeship programme with Toyota and will be offered a permanent post once finished.

Next Steps / Conclusion (consider including the following information)

Careers adviser will continue to be available until BS is 18 years old for IAG if required.